A Mission Driven Church

We Worship God in Spirit and Truth * We Serve God in the Poor
We Spread His Good News Near and Far * We Love Others as God Loves Us

WE PRACTICE STEWARDSHIP

We make a commitment of our Time to grow in the practice of our faith on Ash Wednesday

We make a commitment of our Talents & Abilities to serve the needs of the church on Pentecost Sunday

We make a commitment of our Treasure to support the works of the church on the First Sunday of Advent

The Scriptures offer us two measures or standards for giving. Faithful Israelites in the Old Testament followed the standard of the Tithe. They offered ten percent of their wealth to God so that He could prosper them with the balance. While Jesus endorsed this standard as a faithful Jew, He also challenged his followers to give their all. At St. Andrew's we suggest to our faithful members that they do their best to offer 5% for the works of the church here in our parish and 5% for the works of the greater church. The latter includes the ADF, Catholic Charities, and the myriad of special collections spread throughout the year.

The curriculum at each grade level is comprehensive and integrates high quality academics with Christian leadership and living. At All Saints, students are free to express and celebrate their faith in God. For information about enrollment call 447-4600.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE LATIN MASS DOCUMENT

Last week, Pope Benedict XVI issued a document in which he gave all priests permission to celebrate private Masses (without a congregation) following the Latin Missal which was in use from the end of the 16th century until 1969. If some Catholics express a sincere interest in this form of the Mass, they are permitted to attend as well. You may wonder why the Pope would even think of such a thing. He was concerned in particular about a group of Catholics who have separated themselves from full communion with the church by refusing to worship using the new order of Mass. These are Catholics who have gone so far as to claim that this “new Mass” is not a true Mass. They have also called into question many of the teachings of the Second Vatican Council which had, among other things, authorized the renewal of the church’s liturgical rites so that people could participate in a more conscious and active way.

The Pope also wanted to clear up confusion about the status of the old Mass. He states that this Mass was never abolished because it was a vital part of the church’s heritage. He further clarifies that both the old Mass and the new Mass are clear expressions of the dictum that as the church prays, so the church believes (lex orandi, lex credenda). He expressed the hope that this clarification would facilitate the reconciliation of those who had become so attached to the old Mass, while offering to all who may be interested a greater opportunity to participate in such Masses.

While some critics who had foreseen the publication of this document had feared that it would divide the church, the Pope makes it crystal clear that there is only one Roman Rite which has an “ordinary” (the one presently in use) and an “extraordinary” form. He states matter-of-factly that since there are so few priests with the necessary knowledge of Latin and the older rite, it was highly likely that the ordinary rite would continue to be the one celebrated everywhere today.

I have zero interest in the older rite with which I grew up. Why would I want to turn my back to the people and quietly read the prayers of the Mass in a language which I barely understand and which the laity have no knowledge at all? The “Mystery” of the Mass has nothing to do with it appearing to be unintelligible. It has everything to do with our participating in it fully, consciously, and actively---on the inside and outside.
